

Mabel Dieter

Mabel Ellen Dieter of Chesley passed away at the Chesley and District Memorial Hospital on Sunday, August 7, 1994, in her 96th year.

Beloved wife of the late Mike Dieter, she was the dear mother of Mae, Mrs. Ross Smith of Chesley.

Loved grandmother of Linda and her husband, Alan Bluhm of Kitchener; John of Pembroke, James and his wife, Christine of Whitby and Scott and his wife, Della of Waterloo.

Survived also by great-grandchildren, Melanie and Cory Bluhm, Ryan, Deanna and Brendon Smith; her sisters, Margaret Bricker of Palmerston, Dorothy Cook of Owen Sound and Millie, Mrs. William Walpole of Owen Sound.

Predeceased by three brothers and four sisters.

Friends were received at the Emke-McFadden Funeral Home in Chesley on Monday afternoon and evening, August 8. Rev. Paul Hartig officiated for the funeral service held on Tuesday, August 9 at 3 p.m. in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Chesley.

Interment in the Chesley Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Bill Pattison, Ed Smith, Murhle Martin, Earl Parker, Bill Walpole and Doug Slater.

Donations to St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Parkview Manor and the charity of one's choice were gratefully acknowledged by the family as expressions of sympathy.

Mary Kalbfleisch

Emily Mary (Gobert) Kalbfleisch of Hanover, formerly of Chesley, passed away at the Hanover and District Hospital on Monday, September 19, 1994, in her 85th year.

Beloved wife of the late Orville A. Kalbfleisch, a former principal at the Chesley District High School.

Dear mother of E. Joan, Mrs. Kenn C. S. Tuckey of Edmonton; Mary Anne, Mrs. Edward A. Sulis of South Porcupine.

Survived also by grandchildren, Charles, Kathy, Terry, Stephen and Kate and great-grandchildren, Jennifer, Christopher, Andrew and Curtis; and by her brother, Lloyd and his wife, Bea.

Predeceased by her twin sister, Florence Evelyn and a grandson, David.

Mrs. Kalbfleisch was a graduate nurse from Mac Training School for Nurses, St. Catharines, Ontario in 1932. While living in Chesley, she was a volunteer with the Canadian Cancer Society and the Well Baby Clinic and was a member of the Women's Institute.

Friends were received at the Emke-McFadden Funeral Home in Chesley on Thursday afternoon and evening. A funeral service was held at Holy Trinity Anglican Church in Chesley on Friday at 2 p.m.

Rev. Edward Richmond of Hanover officiated.

Interment in the Chesley Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Barry Woodyard, Percy West, Frank Vandervoort, Bill Kalbfleisch, Stephen Sulis and Ed Sulis.

Donations to the CNIB or the Hanover Hospital were gratefully acknowledged by the family as expressions of sympathy.

SBV3-11

Edna Currie

Edna Elizabeth (Patchell) Currie of Chesley passed away at Parkview Manor in Chesley on Wednesday, August 10, 1994, in her 88th year.

Beloved wife of the late Duncan M. Currie and dear mother of Doris, Mrs. John A. Thompson of Chesley; Freda, Mrs. Edgar Wood of Stratford and Ruth Flewelling of Stratford.

Survived also by six grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren. One brother, Verral Patchell of Port Elgin and a sister, Marion and her husband, Earl Dailey of Kemble also survive.

Predeceased by a brother, William, a sister, Mabel, a son-in-law, Jack Flewelling and one great-grandson.

The family of the late Edna Currie received friends at the Emke-McFadden Funeral Home in Chesley where the funeral service was held on Friday, August 12, 1994 at 2:30 p.m. Rev. Dr. Alex McCombie officiated.

Serving as pallbearers were Diane Thompson, Doug Bailey, Ron Wood, Harold Thomson, Doug Dailey and Robert Wood.

Interment in the Chesley Cemetery.

Edna Povelofskie

Edna May Povelofskie of 73 5th Avenue SW in Chesley passed away at her home in Chesley on Wednesday, October 19, 1994, following a 15-month illness. She was 75 years of age.

Born in Sullivan Township on April 15, 1919, she was the daughter of the late William F. and Anna Marie Povelofskie.

Edna worked as a registered nursing assistant (RNA) in her younger years, serving in Brampton, Dunnville and Hamilton Hospitals.

Left to mourn her passing are six sisters and two brothers - Wilson and Lyle of RR 1 Desboro; Florence Mervyn of Owen Sound; Orral, Mrs. Joe Charlton of Smithville; her twin sister, Elda, Mrs. Robert Harrison of Chesley; Mrs. Ada MacDonald of Hamilton; Ruth, Mrs. Russell Miles of Owen Sound and Agnes, Mrs. Bev Byers of Tara.

Loved by many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a brother, Elmer.

Mr. George Poole officiated for the funeral service held at the Emke-McFadden Funeral Home in Chesley on Saturday, October 22 at 11 a.m. Interment in the Chesley Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were nephews of Mrs. Povelofskie - Harold Charlton, Ernest Krajcir, John Harrison, Dale MacDonald, Larry Mervyn and Peter Povelofskie.

Carrying the flowers were nieces, Sandra and Mary Harrison and nephew, Mark Charlton.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the Chesley Hospital or the charity of one's choice were appreciated by the family.

Dedicated teacher and long-time Rotarian, Frank Garrett, dies

A well-known, retired area teacher, Frank M. Garrett of R.R. 1, Chesley, passed away at Hanover and District Hospital on Wednesday, August 31, 1994 in his 79th year.

Born in Hullett Township near Lonsboro, Frank and his parents moved to a farm Tuckersmith Township. He attended rural school and completed secondary education at Clinton Collegiate.

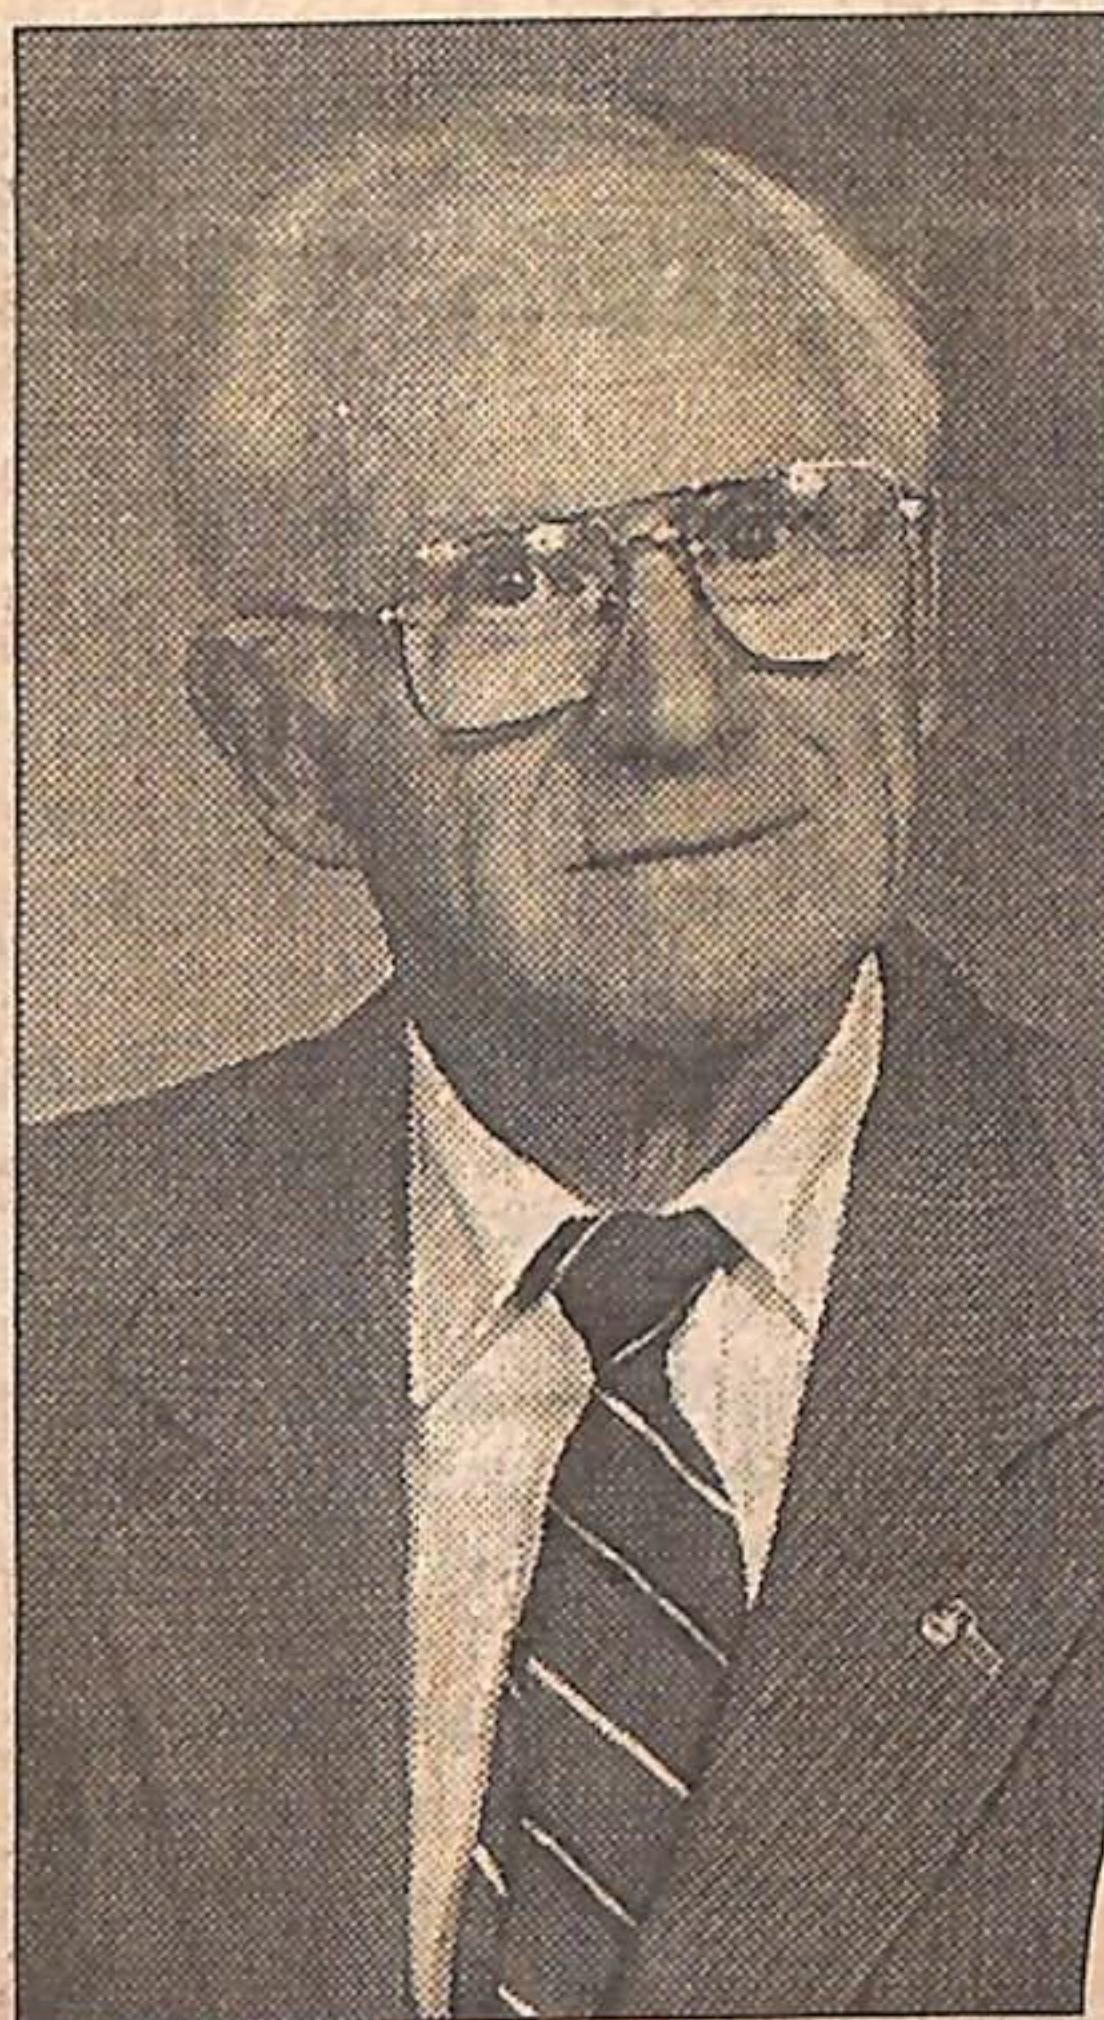

Frank took his teacher training at Stratford Normal School and completed training with a Specialist Certificate in Industrial Arts.

Frank's life was a varied and active one. He was the holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross, a rare honor for a navigator. It was awarded by the Royal Air Force Bomber Command on his completion of 38 missions over German-held territory in the Second World War.

Frank's teaching career spanned 35 years with positions at Sarnia, Belleville, Glen Allen and the last 24 years at Chesley District High School. He retired in 1973.

As a teacher he earned a reputation for innovation and demanding the most of his students.

With his Builder's Club, Frank made benches and picnic tables for the Chesley Park. On his own, he made and quietly donated a number of projects to the community including a set of candelabra still used by the United Church for weddings and at Christmas.

Frank Garrett

A dedicated member of the Chesley Rotary Club for 35 years, he was named a Paul Harris Fellow and was a donor to that program. Frank also served many years on the executive, including a term as president. He spearheaded many projects - ball tournaments, fundraising and donations to Third World Countries.

An enthusiastic and avid traveller, with family and friends he travelled extensively in Canada and the United States.

Other trips included the British Isles, much of Europe, Africa, Japan, Australia, China, South America, Scandinavia and Russia.

Beloved husband of Arlene Ervan. Predeceased by his first wife, Marjorie Cooper.

Dear father of Murray and his wife Audrey of Clifford, Donald and his wife Lorraine of Tillsonburg.

Sadly missed by grandchildren Dana, Krista, Vanessa and Grant. Survived by a sister Erma Crich and her husband Alden of Lucknow, and a brother-in-law Warren Whitmore of Clinton.

Predeceased by a sister Irene Whitmore and a brother Bert.

A memorial service will be held September 10th, 1994 at St. John's United Church, Chesley at 2:00 p.m.

Donations to the Red Cross, Christian Blind Mission, or a charity of choice would be appreciated as expressions of sympathy and may be made at Emke-McFadden Funeral Home, Chesley.