

"A community is wanting in self-respect which does not take an interest in its history and seek to preserve those records by which that history can be traced and authenticated."

-Lord Lansdowne.

Coronation Women's Institute Branch, Bolton, is composed of members who come from the village, and from a radius of five miles, extending to the west as far as the sixth concession of Albion, and to the east, as far as the ninth concession of Albion. In compiling our history book we have undertaken to serve a much wider territory than that served by our local Institute. Since there is no Institute to the north or to the east of Bolton, we endeavoured to record the history from the fourth concession to its eastern boundary.
