

and a Committee for Visiting the Sick; that the secretary read some rule or rules from the hand-book at each meeting and that inexpensive badges be furnished to all members who wish to attend the Annual District Meeting at Stratton, June 12th.

Mrs. A. J. Stewart agreed to type-write copies enough of the program to supply each member of the branch with a copy.

The meeting was closed informally after which Mrs. Stewart served a simple wartime lunch.