

March 7 1986

As Curator for Goshen Women's Institute I submit the following report for 1985:

Goshen W.I. proud to report the historical event of the planning and unveiling of the basin at Goshen; also at which they held an afternoon Tea; local newspaper published the story of the basin. They also celebrated their 70th Anniversary.

Local newspapers published articles & pictures on:
Goshen W.I. founding members -
Goshen Railway Station -
Goshen W.I.'s back porch of earlier years -
Goshen country store & Post Office being a famous landmark -

Guest speakers were: Ed & Mary and Jessie Smith with a report on the London conference: Grand, fun & an excellent history.

A Historical Hall call:
"Bring some fun & history of our Goshen community."

Goshen W.I. donated money for prize in the W.I. Division of Letter Fair in honor of Mrs Martha Jameson.

Respectfully Yours
Mrs Raymond Cook
