St. Joseph's graduation

Sixteen graduating Grade 8 students were recognized at the annual graduations ceremonies held at St. Joseph's Separate School, Thamesford on Monday, June 27.

The ceremonies opened with a Mass in which Kerri Barta introduced the theme of the Mass. The first and second readings were read by Colleen Aarts and Laura Ebel. The congregation was led in the Psalm by Cathy Arts. Bobby Gordon led the Gospel Acclamation. Jack Aarts, Jason Brekelmans, Scott Jacobs, Brian Robb, Marla Ramos, Anita Verhoeven, Jason Poel, Jason Van de Coevering read the Interecessions. The reader at the offertory was Betty Arts and gift presenters were Colleen Arts, Laura Ebel, Garth Jansen, Chris Ryan, Jason Van de Coevering, Anita Verhoeven, Cathy Arts and Jack Arts. Following communion, a slide presentation "On Eagles Wings" was introduced by Chris Ryan.

Graduates receiving awards were; Father Mariani Award - Marla Ramos, Proficiency Award - Colleen Aarts, Citizenship Award - Kerri Barta. The Sportmanship Awards went to Garth Jansen and Anita Verhoeven and the Most Improved Award to Scott Jacobs. Valedictorian was Chris Ryan.

Again in keeping with tradition at St. Joseph's, the grade 7 mothers prepared the banquet which was served by the grade 7 students.

The evening concluded with a dance in the school gymnasium.
