

5

Canada and in the United States. He himself was often surprised at the number of people he met who had read all his books. His favourite novel was Hitch Wood. Other novels were Greenmantle, The Dancing Floor, The Three Hostages, Prester John, Huntingtower, The Moon Endureth, A History of the Great War, The Thirty-Nine Steps.

During the winter of 1939 he obtained leave to go down to Dr. Miller of the Medical Centre in New York. He returned to Canada and passed away on February 11, 1940 at the Neurological Hospital in Montreal.

Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir were born four children, Alice (1908), John (1911), William (1916), and Alastair (1918)

-written by Miss Jean Hossack
from "John Buchan" by his friends and his wife.