

250

the whiskey men and the joy of the temperance party, a good many of them determined not to go where it was and not to have it at any of their raisings."
-from D. B. Brown biography.

The Sutherlands County of Oxford Gazetteer 1862. there is this record of the "Temperance Society" in Thamesford.

"True Blue Temple, No. 121," I. O. S. P., was organized on the 26th of April, 1856.
Meets on Monday night, in the Temperance Hall, Thamesford. P. O. address, Thamesford.

Officers

A. C. T., O. F. Shafer,	O. G., John Clark
H. V., Atlanta Abbott,	H. C., Anson Abbott
H. S., Martha Mc Lellan,	H. A. S., Elizabeth Baker
H. P., J. Sherlock,	D. M., Aenith Sherlock
H. F. S., H. F. Kelly,	R. W. S., Eliza Clark
H. M., Alfred Gilray,	L. H. S., Jane Sherlock.
L. G., Cynthia Sherlock	