

Dec. 19, 1951.

The 1952 slate of officers of the King Solomon Lodge No. 349 A.F. and A.M. follows: James Dundas, W.M.; Ben Leslie, S.P.M.; Murray Johnson, S.W.; Thomas Petit, J.W.; Stanley R. Johnston, chaplain; William Jamieson, treasurer; T.R. Macneivell, secretary; George Hogg, S.D.; William McCorquodale, J.D.; Howard Clark, D. of C.; Ted Richardson, S.S.; Nelson Oliver, S.S.; Max Lindsay, J.S.; James Peden, tyler; trustees. Nelson Oliver, J.H. Clark, W.M. Carrothers; Representative to Masters' and Past Masters' and Wardens' Association, P.W. Newton.

Dec. 22, 1951.

Scores of Christmas dinners were cooked the wrong way as flames enveloped the main building of the Riverside Poultry Co. plant. Fire raced through the 97 x 58 foot concrete block structure destroying two truck loads of live poultry, a third truck and machinery. More damage was avoided as the barking of a collie dog roused neighbours to discover the blaze at 2 a.m.