

Sept. 29, 1949

Mrs. Cady and Harper.

A financial report was given by the Treasurer, and it was shown by various statements that the Institute had profited by catering for dances and banquets. It was decided that henceforth each member should bring a loaf of bread or sandwiches for such projects.

The President asked for volunteers for the new social committee and Mrs. Zeemel, Lehman and Provencher responded. A vote of thanks was rendered to the past committee on entertainment for its excellent work.

It was decided that an inquiry should be made re the possibility of a Christmas concert this year and Mrs. ^{Zeemel} Caylor volunteered.

No bills were presented for payment.

The President introduced the guests, Mrs. Stevens, Smith and Lee, to the members.

The roll-call was for labor saving suggestions and many helpful hints were obtained from these. Fines were collected from members who had not brought their roll call.

Mrs. Lillian Ayres was called upon to give a talk on Fall Leaves and she suggested that members gather leaves for the next meeting and her talk be postponed until then.

An interesting pamphlet from Hill Clark Francis in New Lindeard was passed among the members by Mrs. Pleasant.

A short discussion took place on the possibility of
