

Oct 30/52

early October, was given by Mrs. R. Caylor.

The President suggested members read an article on Breast Cancer in the Everybody's Digest, enlarging the talk given on this subject at the September meeting.

A discussion took place among the members as to whether ^{one} members of the families should be allowed in free of charge at dances when the Institute member was unable to come herself. A motion was made but not seconded and it was decided that the previous motion should stand: Members who bring a loaf of bread in sandwiches to Institute dances are admitted free of charge.

Mrs. Caylor announced the date of the Kinemen Diner Club Banquet as Nov. 19th, at which the Institute would be catering hostesses. A menu was read, and a list of requirements of pies and salads from the members. The ordering of the meat and other large groceries was left to Mrs. Caty. Members were asked to turn out at 6 p. m. on that date to help in the kitchen, serving of plates etc. It was announced the Kinemen would pay us $1.25 ^{per} plate.

Mrs. O. Zemel announced ^{the} blanket shipment of wool had gone out during the past week.

Mrs. R. Clement, District President, gave her report on the Area Convention held at Englishhart, on Sept 25, 26. One important item was a talk given by a member of the New London Business Women's Club, in which she told audience that women will be called