

March 26/53.

Kerr, Bower and Rose. There are for April, May and June A list, prepared by Mrs. D. Zemel, was passed around among the members to show them the number of times they had volunteered on Social Committee and asking their cooperation and help in preparing programs for the coming year. Members were asked if they wished to serve as hostesses the same month next year.

The program was a report on Agriculture and Canadian Industries, submitted by Mrs. A. Peattie, Convenor, and read by Mrs. Caylor.

There being no further business, it was moved by Mrs. Zemel, and seconded by Mrs. Elliott, that we adjourn. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. Hostesses were Mrs. Herbert, Cook & Laroue
