address book was turned down by the members.

It was decided to hold the December meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 29, as a Christmas party for members and their wives and Kissner and their wives.

The program was a report on Home Economics by convenor, Mrs. Bower. Mrs. Bower read a leaflet describing the essentials of good house-keeping. A little leaflet was passed among the members on how to make work easy.

Mrs. Bower, District Guide Commissioner, explained fully how the Girl Guide program worked and the necessity of a sponsoring group. Quite a discussion took place among the members and it was brought before them as a motion if they wished to be sponsors of the Girl Guide movement in Holtzville. It was moved by Mrs. Caty and seconded by Mrs. Hughes that we sponsor the Guides. Carried. The committee who volunteered were as follows: Mrs. Andrews, Searson, Caty and Elliott, for a period of two years. Their duties: to see that the Guide had a weekly place of meeting, that the leaders were present at each meeting and satisfactory as well as other sundry matters laid down by the Guide Commissioner.

Since there was no further business, it was moved by Mrs. Searson and seconded by Mrs. Finnan that we adjourn. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem and our hostesses were Mrs. Hughes, Kern and Phillips.
