

Kinloss Kairshea WI Christmas party

Kinloss Kairshea WI

The Kinloss Kairshea WI met on a snowy Jan. 19 for a fabulous Christmas dinner at the Anglican Parish Hall. The delicious turkey dinner served by the Anglican ladies was enjoyed by 13 members and six guests.

Erlma Haldenby thanked the ladies and Irene Haldenby welcomed everyone with a reading, "New Years Resolutions."

After the Opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, Irene Erlma gave the minutes and the correspondence was discussed. June Gilchrist told members about the district directors meeting. The rollcall was 'Christmas' gifts from the Sunshine Sisters and everyone showed the beautiful gift they received from a sacred sister.

Joan Murray and Roberta Whytock each had a New Years reading.

Donna Sutton gave a hilarious monologue on "Christmas Gifts".

Joan had a contest won by Erlma Haldenby and there were lots of lucky chairs with the table decorations as prizes.

Both Irene and Joan had another reading with Alice Doelman giving the courtesies.

The Christmas party closed with O'Canada.

Kinloss Kairshea WI held meeting at Lucknow Town Hall on Feb. 16

The Kinloss Kairshea WI held their Business and Industry meeting at the Lucknow Town Hall on Feb. 16. A wonderful lunch of cheese balls, crackers, grapes, tea, coffee were served by Kathy Gibson, Karen Allen and Alice Ritchie.

Joan Murray opened the meeting with the Opening Ode and Mary Stuart Collect. Joan read, "What are Valentines?" Erlma Haldenby read the minutes and Kathy Gibson gave the treasurers report.

The rollcall "Funniest Commercial on TV" was answered by 11 members. Erlma Haldenby gave the topic, "Human Trafficking, stating that it is the most profitable after drugs and guns. Over four million women and children are victims each year. It is modern day slavery for money. Erlma then showed the DVD Baht, which means money - showing a young girl who was a victim and her sad fate. The show was very disturbing and we were all quite shocked.

A discussion on what we can to help occurred afterwards and Erlma had a few books to lend out on the topic. Sharon MacDougall gave some Valentine quotes and "why I love my mother," she then told of debit card fraud and read a Valentines poem. Gladys Johnston gave the courtesies and the meeting closed with O Canada.
