June Gilchrist's Mother - Mabel Anna Stewart

She was born in Kalamazoo, Michigan on Feb. 6, 1916, the eldest of four girls. She married Lawrence Stewart on Dec. 11, 1935 and raised a family of seven children on the South Line of Kincardine township. She passed away June 13, 1993 and is buried in Kincardine cemetery.

My memories of Mom were that she was a devoted Christian and worked really hard to give her family a good home in spite of hard times with little money. She loved to sew and made our clothes by hand with a treadle machine, creating all the patterns herself. She had a large garden from which she fed us and did canning for winter meals. She milked cows by hand and helped with the farm work as well as baking bread and other goodies. She never learned to drive the car despite all of Dad's attempts to teach her. She just seemed to be too nervous.
