

Scope and Content:

The fonds consists of records related to The Kintore Women's Institute and history of Kintore. It is arranged into 6 scrapbooks and 1 binder of the history of the Women's Institute and history of Kintore.

Condition of Material:

Fair. Needs some conservation work.

Immediate Source of Acquisition:

Thamesford Library 2011.

Language of Material note:

English

Restrictions on access:

The fonds is open to publish research. However, please contact the archivist responsible for the records regarding access, as some materials may be too fragile to handle. The Archives will make every effort to supply reference copies where feasible.

Terms Governing use and reproduction/publication:

Copyright is held by the archives. Researchers are responsible for observing copyright regulations that may apply to the publication of their research. If you wish to publish any of this material, please contact the archivist responsible for the records.

The Archivist has the right to restrict reproduction if the material is in a fragile condition.

Accruals:

No further accruals expected at this time.

Finding Aids:

A detailed finding list is available for researchers. Please contact Archives Staff for further information.

Related materials in this repository:

COA20 Uniondale Women's Institute Tweedsmuir fonds
COA28 Innerkip Women's Institute fonds
COA30 Herrington Women's Institute fonds
COA78 Hickson Women's Institute and E. Oxford W.I. fonds
COA79 Grace Patterson Women's Institute Tweedsmuir fonds

Reference Number:

COA77

Notes:

Kintore was formerly East Nissouri Twp. in Oxford County in 1878. Nissouri is akin to Missouri, which means