

Thurs.
March 31/66

Editorial

page 2

Easter is a time of hope!

Now while I refuse to go along with all those who ~~am~~ condemn to-day's teen-agers so loud and long, I do feel that whether or not it is our generation's fault, most of the young people today are much too blase. If you don't believe me, try offering a kindergarten a penny.... and so it goes. They have more money, go more places, do less work and are more sophisticated (outwardly, at least) and certainly, and saddest, they are more bored.

I feel that a solution might be to slow them down a couple of years, but how to achieve this, needs someone a lot wiser than I. However every once in a while I see a glimmer of hope.

One little fellow showed me this glimmer just the other day. He was given a Bible as a Sunday School award. He was not expecting it and he was thrilled...Really Thrilled. I predict for this young man a happy, contented life and I hope he maintains his feeling of pride in earning awards and treasures his Bible.

Church News

Christ Church (Anglican) Lakeside will celebrate Palm Sunday with Holy Communion, Sunday, April 3.

Lakeside United Church will celebrate Holy Communion, Palm Sunday, during the regular morning service, Sunday, April 3.

(Continued from Page 1)

Visitor (continued)

Mommy and Daddy go to Montreal to meet Mrs. Hendriks parents who are arriving from Holland for a visit.

View Fashions

Several of the Lakeside Ladies were entertained at a North American Fashion Frock demonstration at the home of Mrs. Allen Stewart on Monday evening, March 28.

The Fashion Counsellor is Mrs. Garnet Smith of London.

The fact that "In the spring a young lady's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of fashion" was well proven by the enthusiasm and enjoyment shown by all present.

Final Euchre

The final Euchre Party of the season to be sponsored by The Lakeside Orange Lodge was held Tuesday, March 29 with 12 tables playing.

Winners were Ladies Lone Hand Mrs. Sophie McArthur, Ladies High Score Mrs. Geo. Harrah, Consolation Mrs. Edna Alexander (Page 6)

Poetry Corner

REMEMBER

Whenever you know a desolate hour
And are steeped in misery,
Remember Christ was lonely too,
In bleak Gethsemane;
Whenever you feel that all of the world
Has turned its back on you,
Remember that Christ knew what it was
To feel abandoned too.

Whenever you feel that your burden
Is greater than you can bear,
Remember He too heartbreakingly knew
A moment of dark despair;
And remembering these things just bear in mind
His victory was finally won
When He bowed His head and humbly said,
"But Thy will, not Mine, be done!"