...What have they seen in thine house?...
Isaiah 39:1

You can learn more about people by one visit to their home than by a thousand contacts in public outside the home. It is in the home where we are likely to let our hair down and quit acting & pretending. You can tell whether the husband and wife have tastes that are artistic or drab. You can tell if they are musical or literary and whether they are interested in sports and outdoor life. All this can be learned by just a casual observation of the furnishings, books, ornaments, etc.

Isaiah the prophet asked King Hezekiah, "What did the King of Babylon see in your house when he recently visited you?" Isaiah knew that a person's home is likely to reveal the heart.

The size of the television screen is often in inverse proportion to the spiritual atmosphere.

Poetry Corner

I know three things must always be
To keep our country strong and free:

One is a hearthstone bright and dear
With busy, happy loved ones near;

One is a ready heart and hand
To love and serve and keep the land;

One is a wide and traveled way
To where the people go to pray.

So long as these are kept alive
Our country and people will survive.

God keep them always everywhere...
The hearth, the flag, the place of prayer.

Now Ed & Mike went off on a spree
(Selling spree, that is)
When they returned full of glee
Their fraus remarked, "Gee whiz!"
You fellows don't need a wife
You're happy with Confederation Life"
Now this isn't right, they love their wives
But they feel bound to protect the lives
Of other folk, like you and me
And that is why the selling spree.

(Honest!)
