Whing Ding Party (Continued From Page 1)

sort of a record by keeping 99 issues out of the 100 published to date. She will receive a memento in recognition of her appreciation of The Lark.

A minute's Silence was kept in memory of the thirteen people who had passed away since last year's gathering.

Greg Fletcher amused the gathering by doing an impromptu step dance when he became quite carried away by the lively music of John Gates and Donald Snell.

The Editor would like to thank sincerely all who came, the many who helped in so many ways to make the party a success.

Thank you too, to The Lakeside General Store for the lovely pot of mums they sent to the party and to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McGirr for their kind message of of congratulations.

Sorry Folks - No Dance at The Lakeside Pavilion Sat. Dec. 9!

No Hockey News

Doug Kennedy, our faithful sports reporter went to all the trouble of writing up the week's hockey scores. Between your sleepy Editor and Doug's hesitant father, we didn't get those hockey scores in time for publication time. We will print them this coming week. Don't throw rocks at Doug. Throw them at me.

Stag Gag

One teen-ager to another: "He hasn't actually kissed me yet, but he steamed my glasses a couple of times."

Small boy to playmate as pretty little girl goes by: "Boy! If I ever stop hating girls, she's the one I'll stop hating first!"
