

Thurs.
Dec. 14/67

Editorial

Editor - G. Helen Wolony
P.F. - Manfred Wolony
page 2

NO USE BEATING AROUND THE BUSH---
Fifteen dollars is too much rent for the Orange Hall.
Toilet facilities are worse than nil....
Dishwashing facilities are almost nil....
And any excuse for charging Fifteen dollars is certainly nil.
I used the Orange Hall - I paid the fifteen dollars and I am grateful for the use of the building, but I still think - and say - it is much too much. Any comments on this editorial would be much appreciated, no matter what side of the issue you take. Let's have your opinions for or against.

Church News

The Ladies Guild of Christ Church (Anglican) Lakeside are busy, busy this week as they prepare to cater for the annual Western Ontario Percheron Assoc. dinner on Thursday evening, Dec. 14 for approximately sixty members and friends of the association.

Master Jeffrey Wayne Pickering son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pickering was baptised during the regular services at Lakeside United Church on Sunday, December 10. A Centennial baby, baptised during the Centennial Year is a lovely idea, although Jeffrey Wayne didn't look as though he was too certain about how lovely it was.

Poetry Corner

AND SOMEHOW, EVERY YULETIDE.....

Christmas time is sure to find me
On a high snow-covered hill,
Where an old farmhouse is standing
Weather-tight and sturdy still.
There the plumes of smoke ascending
From the chimneys low and wide
Are a silent invitation
To the glowing fires inside.

Across the deep veranda
With its well-worn wooden floor,
The latchstring, now as always,
Hangs outside the friendly door.
And there a sincere welcome
Gives the heart a happy glow,
With this cheery old-time greeting,
"Merry Christmas and hello!"

And somehow, every Yuletide
Is sure to find me there
At that homestead on the hilltop
Where there's peace and joy to spare.

Planning to Entertain during The Holidays?

How about an "Old Time" Dance to the music of
Ed Towle & His Twilight
Westernaires

Phone: 537-6211