

Thurs.
May 2/68

Editorial

Editor - G. Helen Wolley
P.F. - Manfred Wolley

page 2

We had a wonderful time at the White Elephant Sale. People were scurrying back and forth around the corner all last week carrying odd-shaped bundles, baskets and boxes.... then they returned home carrying more odd-shaped bundles, baskets and boxes. Everyone seemed happy with their sales and their purchases and now we will have a wonderful time enjoying our treasures in new settings.

The children had a ball! They munched hot-dogs, pop-corn, drank "Freshie" eyed the goodies and bothered "Mom" for just one more nickel to spend".

At 3:00 a.m. Sunday morning - it was all over except for a warm after-glow which any endeavour in Lakeside leaves one.

Church News

Christ Church (Anglican) Lakeside is planning a Cold Ham Supper to be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, May 22 at 5:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Tickets are being sold at the rate of $1.50 for adults and .75 for children under 12 years of age. This dinner used to be an annual "ladies affair", but this year MEN are welcome. We are sure this will be good news to the stronger sex and we look forward to a large attendance of men, women and children.

Poetry Corner

WOOD ROADS

I like wood roads --
They have a way with them,
Not wide wood roads,
all pruned and paved,
But little, tangled paths
Half hidden in the brush,
That seem to wink one eye
And whisper "Come with me!"
Masked paths that twist and turn
And double out of sight--
So musky sweet, so shadow still,
Yet full of murmuring --
As though adventure waited
Just around the turn --
And Romance stole on tiptoe, starry-eyed,
And Magic flickered
through the deep, green shade.

"I WANT AN OLD FASHIONED HOUSE
WITH AN OLD FASHIONED FENCE
AND AN OLD FASHIONED MILLIONAIRE"

(But I'll settle for a policy with Confederation Life Assoc)

So....All you Big-Time
Spenders (with a small purse)

Contact:

Ed Towle, Agent
Phone: Woodstock
537-6211

(You can call Collect, too)

