

The Lakeside Lark

Thursday, October 3, 1968

Vol. 141

Published Weekly

For, In and About Lakeside

4 page

Price 10¢

Bob Baker, Victim of Accident

Lakeside and area residents were shocked and saddened as they heard the tragic news of the tractor accident which killed Robert (Bob) Oakland Baker, 36, of R.R. 3, Lakeside, Wednesday afternoon, October 2.

Bob was driving a tractor, owned by Douglas Gates of Salford, on the Lakeside sideroad, near Brooksdale. The tractor equipped with a front-end loader, struck a bump in the gravel road and pitched over, knocking Bob off. The tractor then rolled on its side, pinning the driver.

Besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Baker of R.R. 3, Lakeside, Bob is survived by one sister, Georgina of British Columbia.

The body is resting at the L.A. Ball Funeral Chapel, St. Marys until Saturday, October 5, when funeral services will be held at Christ Church (Anglican) Lakeside at 2 p.m. Interment in the Anglican cemetery.

Sincere and heartfelt sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Bazaar & Tea Held

The U.C.W. of Lakeside United Church held a successful Fall Tea and Bazaar in the Church basement on Friday, September 27.

The tea tables were attractively decorated with fall flowers, and the sale items were numerous and varied. There was a large attendance and a good profit was realized.

Weather Forecast

Foul Fall, Fear I.

Happy Birthday to -

- Mrs. Bob Greason - September 26
- Blanche Korte - October 4
- Timmy Pickering - October 5
- Kirby Baker - October 12
- Greg Fletcher - October 12
- Nettie Cole - October 8

Attend Cooking School

Several ladies of Lakeside and area attended the "Cooking School" held in the Legion Hall, St. Marys on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The school was sponsored by the U.C.W. Mrs. Violet Scriber of Kitchener T.V. was the able demonstrator. A number of the local ladies won bags of groceries. Some of the winners were: Ann Dingwall, Freda Pader, Connie Kittner, Mable Sutherland, Helen Wolny.

Visitor

Mrs. Les Adair of Cooksville was a Wednesday visitor with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Johnson in Lakeside.

Definition

Negligee - What she hopes she'll have on when the house burns down.