

Thurs.
Oct. 3/68

Editorial

Editor - g. Helen Wollny
P.F. - Manfred Wollny

Page 2

LET'S GO SHOPPING

(from Violet C. Scriver's
Cook Book)

I am completely out of self respect. I want to exchange self righteousness I picked up the other day, for some humility, which they say is less expensive and wears longer. I want to look at some tolerance which is being used for this season. Someone showed me some pretty samples of Peace. We are low on that, we can never have too much of it, and by the way, I must try to match some patience that my neighbour wears so well.

And while I'm here I might try on the garment of long-suffering and have my appreciation mended and look for inexpensive goodness.

Poetry Corner

SUCCESS

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has gained the respect of intelligent men, and the love of little children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task; who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty, or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best he had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benediction.

B.A. Stanley

Church News

The Sacrament of The Lord's Supper will be observed at Lakeside United Church on Sunday, October 6th. This will be World Wide Communion Sunday.

ONLY LOANED

God didn't say that I might keep This lovely autumn day,
Nor did He mean that through all time

The world coul' look this way.
He sent the beauty of the fall—
The changing autumn leaves,
And yet I know within my heart
God only loaned me these.

God only lends life's lovely things
However large or small.
He keeps them ever in His power
Then lends a share to all,
Old Mother Nature's golden days,
The mountains, plains and trees,
The joys and gladness they impart
God only lends us these.

Confederation Life Insurance

Ed Towle, agent - 537-6911