New Crossing Signs

The village of Lakeside has been favoured by new railroad crossing signs.

The new signs are big, yellow and black and are easy to see. They feature a picture of a railway track instead of words and are easy to understand.

We wonder if they will be as blatantly ignored as the "Stop" signs are.

Silver Anniversary Celebrated

A family get-to-gether was enjoyed on Sunday in honour of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMaster of Stratford.

Mr. and Mrs. McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Showler and Mr. and Mrs. Art Fallowfield celebrated the happy occasion with a dinner at Clark's Restaurant in Ingersoll, and a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Showler in Brantford after.

Worte-Harkes Wedding Solemnized

Zion United Church on the 7th Concession of East Nissouri was the setting Saturday afternoon, October 5 for the pretty fall wedding uniting Eunice Harkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harkes and Howard Worte, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Worte.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely floor-length white gown with a long Cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her attendants were Mrs. Harold Hacon, sister of the groom, Miss Cheryl Harkes, sister of the bride and Miss Caroline Wilson, an aunt of the bride. The attendants were gowned in floor length gowns of yellow, pink and blue.

The best man was Harold Hacon, brother-in-law of the groom and Charles Worte and

Congratulations

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Fletcher of Brantford who celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, October 8th.

Billy Harkes ushered the guests. Rev. Robinson performed the ceremony and Alvin Worte, brother of the groom played traditional wedding music on the church organ.

A reception followed in the basement of the church. Mrs. Harkes received in a pale pink ensemble and Mrs. Worte in pale blue.
