

Touches Toes At 100

Mrs. Edith Lansdell, Concession 11, East Nissouri Township reached the century mark July 19th. Her advice for those wishing to attain longevity "don't overeat". At 100, Mrs. Lansdell can still touch her toes.

1976

1897 Prints At Lakeside

Alex Pickering, along with Mrs. Pickering, Lakeside, has long been a hobby collector of anything in the antique line, with their main interest being in china. However, at a recent sale of home furnishings in Aylmer, Alex discovered these two 1897 prints in a mixed bag offered from the attic of the home. The two prints were originally in a supplement to the Toronto Saturday Night Christmas edition of that era.

June 16, 1976

Father With Chris

July 1976

Chris Johnson held here by his father, Bob, was one of the baby contest prize winners at St. Marys Fair.