Editorial criticized

Sir: In response to your April 21 editorial, It all comes back on consumer, and Agriculture Minister Eugene Whelan statement that dairy farmers had a good year last year, it should be realized that good weather was a major factor.

City people think it is their God-given right to receive a raise in pay every year, but when the farmer gets a little extra it is considered a crime. Consumers are spending less of their dollars on food than ever before. Compared to wages, food is cheap.

As for Whelan spending more money on advertising dairy products, it is not costing the consumer anything. The farmer pays it all. The money is deducted from milk cheques every month. No doubt some of that money goes to The Free Press and CFPL-TV and radio. You take our money in one hand and cut our throat with the other.

World Day Of Prayer Marked At Lakeside

March, 1978

The Women's World Day of Prayer meeting was held in Christ Anglican Church, March 3rd, with a very good attendance. The devotional programme was led by Evelyn King and Marjorie Eleanor Whittaker and readers Helen Gregory, Donna Kittmer, Valerie Horobin, Nora McCarthy; collection was received by Ida Anne Harris and Mary Holden, Grace Seaton organist. We were privileged to hear an inspiring address by the rector Rev. Root, from the text Philippians 2:1-4. Rev. Root stated this was an important day for the world. Unity does not mean that we are called to worship in a common mold, one liturgy, one doctrine, as man is different in all other aspects of his life, his religious life is no different. Unity means that all Christians come together for a common purpose or need. There is a power in unity. Individual denominations are like a "voice" crying in the wilderness to which no one pays any attention.

Unified denominations geared to a common purpose exercise a tremendous power and influence on the world, it changes people and it changes nations. Implications of private, corporate and world wide prayers are - wars cease, graft and corruption cease, fear ceases to exist, and people become concerned and compassionate. Where do we start? Individual change, community change, and finally world-wide change. It must start with me now! Individual prayers are like sparks going up to the heavens. Corporate prayers are like a huge column of fire roaring up to the heavens.

W. I. MEETING

The March meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held on Wednesday afternoon in the United Church basement with a good turn out of members and guests. The first vice president Mrs. James Zegers presided and welcomed all to the meeting. The roll call was answered with "show or tell" how to make something out of scrap or waste. Mrs. Willis Ball assistant secretary-treasurer read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the financial statement. A short business period followed and short courses discussed. Mrs. Alvin Wells convenor of Canadian Industries was in charge of the program and with the help of several readers covered a number of Canadian industries and resources. The motto was "Don't itch for something you are not willing to scratch for", and given by Mrs. Wells. Mrs. Chas. Mitchell read a poem "Words of Advice".

A bake and talent sale followed with Mrs. Allin Stewart as auctioneer. The bidding was lively and entertaining. Lunch was served by Mrs. Chas. Mitchell and committee.

Flowers placed in the United Church on Sunday were in loving memory of the late Mr. LeRoy Kittmer, a farmer resident of Lakeside. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

There was a good attendance at the United Church service on Sunday morning to welcome back Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Brown after their winter break.

Miss Nora McCarthy, Mesdames Jean Youngs, Kathleen Williams, Chas. Mitchell, James Baker and James Morrison attended the Garden Club and Flower Show in Toronto on Thursday. The bus trip was sponsored by the St. Marys Horticultural Society.

A C.P.R. snow plow jumped the tracks the other day while clearing the siding at Lakeside.
