

HAIRDRESSER ASTRID DAY demonstrates her technique on customer Nora McCarthy. Mrs. Day and friends and family held a grand opening of her new salon at Lakeside last Friday. The salon, in a wing of the Day's new house, replaced the older studio nearby from which Astrid has been operating her hairdressing business for the past six years. Assistants at the salon are Wilma Kleinherenbrink and Glenna Day. Astrid's first customer was Henny Kemper - both in the old and new salons. (Staff Photo)
