

Embroid Fall Fair

The Embro Fair opened Saturday night with the fair queen crowning, a variety show and a teen dance. The fair continued Sunday and concludes today with a parade and a variety of events. Shown on the first two days of the fair, clockwise from top left: Brenda Holden, 17, of RR 3 Lakeside, won the fair queen contest over competitors Deanna Richards, of Embro and Caroline Calder, of RR 2 Thamesford; Chris Pooley, right, of RR 1 Embro and Diane Orsborn, of RR 1 Embro, won prizes for having the fastest-eating dogs in the pet show; Zorra Township Mayor Jim Gibb pushes a bale of hay in the farmers' olympics; baby contest winners were, seated from left, best girl, Angela Judge, 17 months old, of RR 3 Woodstock and her mother Pat, best boy, Darren Hazelegar, 11 months old, and his mother Nancy Lee and, standing, Amanda Green, three-and-a-half weeks old, youngest baby and her mother Laura; fair directors Anne Innes, left, of RR 3 Embro and Christine Murray, of RR 3 Embro, saw boards during the farmers' olympics; Sherry Barnett, 14, of Ingersoll, competed in horseshoe pitching; the Ellice tug-of-war team, above, came in third behind Innerkip (first) and South Easthope (second); a happy balloon bearer, Nicole Van Ostaejen, of RR 3 Embro.

Photos by Thelma Hiuser