Lakeside WI holds Christmas meeting

Guests were invited to the Christmas meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute on Wednesday at the Parish hall. Prior to the meeting a pot luck dinner was enjoyed.

Eleanor Kittmer was the conveyor and the table committee was Ida Ann Harris, Helen Holden and Evelyn King. The decorations and favors were courtesy of Linda McCorquodale.

The motto was, "A person who has not Christmas in their heart will not find it under the tree." and was given by Eleanor Kittmer.

The guest entertainers were Lois Bradfield and Dorothy Wheeler from Ingersoll. Lois gave a hilarious rendition of Minnie Pearl of the Grand Ole Opry while Dorothy accompanied her on the piano.

A business period followed. A penny auction was next with Eleanor Kittmer in charge. Christmas cards were signed to be sent to the shut-ins. The January meeting will be a social afternoon at the home of Donna Kittmer.

Several local people joined the Harrington community on a bus trip to Simcoe to see the Christmas lights on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Wollny attended the Tutonia Choir Christmas Party at the Tutonia club in Stratford on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison were Sunday dinner guests with Mrs. Nora Wissel in Granton.
