

A MIGHTY SMALL CHURCH? William Ball, caretaker of the Townline Cemetery in East Nissouri Twp. for the past twenty-five years, stands beside the small Memorial Church constructed in the cemetery grounds when the former Townline Methodist Church was torn down a few years ago. The small structure was built using stones from the original church. Mr. Ball can be very proud of his caretaking. The Townline Cemetery is a model one in every respect.