

CENTENNIAL TEA 1967

The August meeting took the form of a Centennial Tea on August 2, 1967, which was held in the United Church basement. The Church was decorated in purple and yellow streamers, also the 3 flags, The Union Jack, Maple Leaf and the Provincial Flag, with the Union Jack and the Coat-of-Arms. The room was also decorated with the Institute Crest.

The long tea table was covered with a white cloth, 2 silver tea services and a bouquet of flowers. The tea tables were covered with white luncheon cloths, bowls of roses with Maple Leaf flag on each vase, also Centennial rose and Centennial crest table napkins. Mrs. Margaret Johnston and Mrs. Art. Fallowfield poured tea.

The display tables were covered with white tablecloths. The 1967 work was shown by Mrs. Charles Mitchell, consisting of hand made mats, quilts, and needle work.

Mrs Roy Sutherland had charge of the old clothing, old dishes and silverware.

Mrs. Lawrence Taylor showed old quilts, bedspreads, and old pictures, also being the Curator of the Lakeside Institute had the Tweedsmuir History Books on display.

The 4-H Club Girls looked after the table with their display of the work they had done.

Mrs Clayton Kew demonstrated an old sewing machine and an old spinning wheel.

Mrs. Jared Vining greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. Charles Holden looked after the guest book. Admission fee was 50¢.

Attendance 132.