Free advice dep't.

The best is, don't give it . . . Don't trust the man who says he shares everything 50-50 with his wife because he'll lie about other things, too . . . The man who's waiting for something to turn up might start with his shirt sleeves . . . Little problems cast big shadows . . . To remember your wedding anniversary, try forgetting it once . . . The most important preparation for old age is to keep on living . . . In the pursuit of happiness, the difficulty is to know when you have caught it . . . You can't demand a lot of your Sugar if you're not worth your salt.
