

Provincial Honor Winners

Provincial honor certificates were presented at a 4-H Home Garden Club and Home Beautification Achievement Day in Woodstock yesterday. Receiving the awards were left to right: Jean Fleming, RR 4, Embro; Hazel Hewitt, Harrington West;

—Free Press Woodstock Bureau
Jean McCorquodale, RR 3, Lakeside; Lila Ruth Holden, RR 3, Lakeside; and Julia McGee, RR 2, Lakeside. A sixth winner, Nellie DeWit, RR 1, Embro, was not present.

WOODSTOCK — An Achievement Day for seven county 4-H Home Garden and Home Beautification groups was held at Woodstock Recreation Hall yesterday.

Provincial Honor Certificates for girls completing 12 projects went to Nellie de Wit, RR 1, Embro; Jean Fleming, RR 4, Embro; Hazel Hewitt, Harrington West; Jean McCorquodale, RR 3, Lakeside; Lila Ruth Holden, RR 3, Lakeside and Julia McGee, RR 2, Lakeside.

Comments on demonstrations and club exhibits were given by Mrs. Nancy Buchanan, London, and Miss Carmel Coady, home economist for Brant and Wentworth counties. Oxford home economist Miss Eileen McDermid, was chairman.

County Honor Certificates for completing six projects were presented to Janice Killing, RR 5, Embro; Christine Lange, RR 2, Embro; Margaret Hewitt, RR 1, Embro; Jean De Wit, RR 1, Embro; Beverley Piatt, RR 1, Embro; Donna Walters, RR 3, Embro; Elaine Jensen, RR 4, Embro; Mary Smith, Embro; Valerie Brenneman, Embro; Lynda Martin, Harrington West; Nancy Innes, RR 3, Embro; and Ruth Mills, RR 3, Lakeside.

The clubs represented at the achievement day were Brooksdale 1 and 2; Braemar, Embro 1 and 2; Harrington and Lakeside.

A special thanks to the three models for the April Sew and Save Fashion Show at Kintore goes to Miss Sheila Kittmer, Miss Jean McCorquodale and Miss Lila Ruth Holden.

THE WEEKS of preparation for the staging of the third annual Oxford County Festival of Roses was climaxed on Saturday evening in the auditorium of the Ingersoll and District Memorial Centre. The highlight of the program was the crowning of the "Queen of the Rose Festival."

TOP PHOTO is a general view of the parade which featured majorettes, bands, decorated floats, as it proceeds along Thames street through the business area on its way to the IDMC. CENTRE Miss Jean McCor-

quodale, RR 3, Lakeside, is crowned "Queen of the Rose Festival" by Oxford County's Warden Peter McDonald, Bright, with Miss Linda Toten, Thamesford, last year's queen, watching the proceedings. BOTTOM Also vying for the top honors in the rose competitions, Mrs. Grace Cole (right) won the McConnell Nursery Challenge Silver Cup for the "best rose of the show". Miss Beulah Parker was the winner of three of the nine events that were judged. (Staff Photos)

