

TO PETERBOROUGH

BRUCE MCCORQUODALE

Bruce McCorquodale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCorquodale, RR 3 Lakeside, who has guided the activities of many Perth County Junior Farmers for the past eight years, will be leaving Stratford July 1st to become agricultural representative in Peterborough County.

Bruce began as assistant agricultural representative in Perth in 1955, and in 1958, was appointed associate agricultural representative. He graduated from the Ontario College of Agriculture, Guelph, in 1953. He served as assistant agricultural representative in Prince Edward County for almost two years, before he was moved to Perth, where he first served with R. E. White. Upon Mr. White's retirement a few years ago, Mr. McCorquodale worked with Newton Ashton, the present county representative with the Department of Agriculture.

Mr. McCorquodale's activities have been centred chiefly around the 4-H and junior farmer organizations in Perth. He was an esteemed friend of hundreds of young farmers in the county.

Laing E. Kennedy, another Oxford native, who will graduate from Cornell University in New York State, will begin as assistant agricultural representative sometime in June.

Mr. McCorquodale took a year's leave of absence in 1961 to study at Cornell University, where he received his master of science degree in education extension from the college of agriculture.

He is married to the former Marjorie Innes of Embro, and they have four children, Karene, 7, David, 6, Murray, 4, and Paul, 1.

Presentation

A large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered in the Orange Hall, Lakeside, on Friday evening to honor Fred Burroughs. Euchre was played and winners included Mrs. Harold Mills, high score; Mrs. Harvey Mills, low; Chas. Holden, high, and Harvey Waud, low. Roy McCorquodale acted as chairman. Mrs. C. Holden read the address and Bryant Sutherland and Donald Snell presented Fred with a wrist watch and a sum of money. Short speeches of good wishes were given by Donald McCorquodale, George Holden, Adrian Ball and Elmer Forbes. John Gates and Donald Snell played music before and after lunch. Fred lived for a number of years on the half concession and was an active member of the Town Line Euchre Club and has now moved to St. Marys.

On Friday evening on the Farm Focus program over the Wingham T.V. station, Bob Muir received the J. Fred Edwards trophy and Allen Gregory the Roe Farm trophy, which they won at the Perth County 4-H judging competition at Mitchell on Saturday, May 25th.
