

Lakeside United Church Was Setting For This Wedding

BICKELL — MILLS

(Maurice Oliver, Photographer)

Lakeside United Church, beautifully decorated with softly glowing candelabra, white gladioli and white baby mums was the setting on Saturday, February 5th, at 3 p.m. when Georgina Ann Mills, daughter of Mrs. James Morrison and the late George Mills of Lakeside became the bride of Lawrence Maxwell Bickell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bickell of Blanshard Township.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. James Morrison, the bride was radiant in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie, with empire waistline trimmed with lace insertion, lily-point sleeves and a scoop neckline. The detachable train was edged with matching lace insertion. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was held by a coronet of seed pearls and crystals.

The maid of honor, Miss Janice May, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Marie Thompson, sister of the bride and Miss Jane Bickell, sister of the bridegroom, were gowned alike in Princess line, street-length gowns of Burgundy velvet with matching headbands. They carried white muffs, decorated with colonial bouquets of deep red rosebuds, variegated red and white mums and stephanotis. Little Susan Thompson, niece of the bride, was flower-girl, in a Burgundy velvet "Winnie-the-Pooh" frock, tiny matching headband and carrying a little white muff, daintily decorated with rosebuds, baby mums and stephanotis.

Best man was Leonard Hawkins and ushering the guests was Lawrence Mills, brother of the bride and Tom Bickell, brother of the bridegroom. The ring-bearer was little John Bickell, nephew of the groom.

The Rev. Mr. Blackmore officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Ethel Gregory played traditional wedding music.

Mrs. James Morrison, mother of the bride, received the guests, gowned in a suit of royal blue silk velvet with white satin blouse and white accessories. She wore a corsage of deep pink roses. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. William Bickell, mother of the bridegroom, who chose a deep teal blue dress and black accessories. Her corsage was of deep pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church for 75 guests. For a wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a smart three-piece ensemble of camel-hair, with a white fox fur collar, chocolate brown accessories and a corsage of bronze-tone mums. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Bickell will reside in St. Marys.

Guests were present from Hamilton, Granton, Stratford, St. Marys and Lakeside.

1966