

LAKESIDE

W.I. Meeting

The November meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute met Wednesday in the Orange Hall with the president, Mrs. Willis Ball presiding. The meeting opened with Institute Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and 'O Canada'. Mrs. Leman Harris was appointed delegate to the County Conference. Plans were made to help with the Centennial Fair to be held in Kintore. Mrs. Allin Stewart gave a report on the Fall Board meeting held in Hickson. Mrs. Frank McLeod presided for the program. The roll call: "What gives me pep" was answered by 17 members. Mrs. Charles Holden commented on the motto: "He who has health, has hope and he who has hope has everything". Mrs. Andrew Kittmer gave current events. Mrs. Leman Harris gave a piano number and Mrs. Alex Muir read a poem on Autumn. Mrs. McLeod gave an interesting talk on Expo. Kimberley McLeod entertained with tap dancing. Courtesy remarks by Mrs. Charles Mitchell and the meeting closed with The Queen. The health and home economics group served refreshments.

Nov., 1967

W. I. Meeting

The June meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday, June 7th. Mrs. Jared Vining, 2nd vice-president presided for the meeting. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode, Mary Stewart Collect and "O Canada". The roll call, "An interesting fact about another country." Mrs. Eric Kittmer commented on the motto, "Love is the best assurance for world peace." Plans are being made for a bus trip in August. Mrs. James Kittmer reviewed Current Events. Mrs. Eric Kittmer, convener of the Citizenship and Education group presided for the program and introduced the guest speaker, Mr. R. J. White, barrister of St. Marys, who spoke on Estate Planning, and a question and answer period followed the address. Mrs. Clarence Cole thanked the speaker. Miss Nancy Gates entertained with Scotch dancing and John Gates and Donald Snell supplied the musical accompaniment for Nancy. Mrs. Clayton Kew gave the courtesy remarks. The meeting closed with The Queen. The Citizenship and Education group served refreshments.

June, 1967

Mrs. Lloyd Kittmer P.R. Officer

The December meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held in the Orange Hall, Wednesday, with the president, Mrs. Willis Ball presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode, Mary Stewart collect and the Lord's Prayer.

The Roll call, a toy for a child, was answered by 22 members and 6 visitors. The toys are being sent to War Memorial Hospital, London.

Report on Achievement Day was given by Mrs. Roy Sutherland.

Mrs. Allin Stewart reported on the Area Convention that was held in London.

The program began with a poem read by Mrs. Jas. Morrison, convener. Mrs. Lloyd Kittmer lead in a Christmas Meditation. Mrs. Walter Gregory commented on the motto "A Homesteader's Christmas" Poems were read by Mrs. Chas. Mitchell and Mrs. Percy Vannatter. Mrs. Bryant Sutherland favoured with a piano instrumental. A reading contributed by Mrs. Harry Munds was read by Mrs. Morrison.

Mrs. Jared Vining showed slides on Expo and also some slides of local interest. Courtesy remarks by Mrs. George Holden. The meeting closed with "The Queen." The committee served refreshments.

W. I. Meeting

The October meeting of the Lakeside W. I. met in the Orange Hall Wednesday evening. The president Mrs. Willis Ball presided and opened the meeting with the Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call, "An industry not known in our grandmother's day," was answered by 24 members. Several visitors were present. The Fall Board meeting was held in Hickson October 6th. The area convention will be in London early in November and the annual church service will be in Knox Church, Embro, later this month. Mrs. Jas. Hossack of Embro will be the church service guest speaker. Mrs. Chas. Mitchell, convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industries introduced Mr. George Worte who showed pictures of his recent trip to England. Mrs. Allin Stewart thanked Mr. Worte. Everyone joined in singing "O Canada" and the Centennial Song. Mrs. Clarence Cole gave courtesy remarks. The meeting closed with The Queen. Refreshments were served by the Agriculture and Canadian Industries group.

October, 67

1968
The January meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute met Wednesday, January 3rd in the basement of the Lakeside United Church with the president Mrs. Willis Ball presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. Due to so much sickness in our community, the attendance was down. Roll call was "What I can do to lower food costs." The motto, "In this modern era, all a woman has to do is to keep on plugging" was commented on by Mrs. Alvin Wells. Current events were reviewed by Mrs. Charles Holden. A New Year's poem was read by Mrs. George Holden and Mrs. Roy Sutherland. A miscellaneous sale was held and a goodly sum was realized. Mrs. Jared Vining and Mrs. Robert Holden were appointed leaders for the millinery course that is being held in February. The meeting closed with The Queen. The Home Economics and Health group served refreshments.

The March meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday with the 1st vice-president Mrs. Allin Stewart presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. The roll call, "a safety rule that applies to the farm" was answered by 47 members and friends. Mrs. Jared Vining reported on the course, "Hats For You." Mrs. Chas. Mitchell, convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industries, presided for the program. Mrs. Mitchell began the programme with a reading. Mrs. Mac Gates commented on the motto, "Nature never spoils her work by being in a hurry." Mrs. Armour Kittmer gave hints on freezing peas. Current events were reviewed by Mrs. Allin Stewart. Mrs. Glen Palmer read a poem. Community singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Bryant Sutherland at the piano. Readings were given by Mrs. Alex Whittacker and Mrs. Jas. Morrison. Courtesy remarks were given by Mrs. Clarence Cole. A miscellaneous sale was held with Mrs. Allin Stewart acting as auctioneer. The meeting closed with "The Queen" and the committee in charge served refreshments.