

W. I. Meeting 1967
The February meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday with the vice-president Mrs. Allin Stewart presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode, followed by the Mary Stewart Collect and O Canada with Mrs. Frank McLeod at the piano. The roll call was answered by 19 members. The group was reminded of the Spring Board meeting early in April in Plattsville United Church. Mrs. Jas. Morrison convener of the Resolutions took charge of the program and reported on Resolutions from the London Area Convention and reviewed Current Events. Mrs. Walter Gregory commented on the motto, "Kindness is the oil of friendship, it keeps the links from rusting." Mrs. Glen Monteith gave several short readings. Mrs. Lloyd Kittmer told a story from Ethel Chapman's book "From a Roadside Window." Poems were read by Mrs. Percy Vannatter and Mrs. Bryant Sutherland. Mrs. Roy Sutherland won the contest "What Am I?" Mrs. Bryant Sutherland favored with an instrumental. Courtesy remarks were given by Mrs. Chas. Holden and the meeting closed with the Queen. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

1968
The May meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held Thursday in the Orange Hall with the president Mrs. Allin Stewart presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. The roll call was answered by 21 members. Plans were made to sponsor a foster child for another year. The members were reminded of the District Annual to be in Hickson late in May. Plans were made for the Christmas stockings to be filled and to be presented at the District Annual meeting. Report of the Spring Board meeting was given by Mrs. Willis Ball. Mrs. Allin Stewart reported on the Officers' Conference which she attended in early May. The meeting was turned over to the Agricultural Committee with Mrs. James McCorquodale as convener. Mrs. McCorquodale opened the meeting with "The Song of the Lazy Farmer" and commented on the motto. Mrs. Glen Palmer gave a paper on Korean training in agriculture on Canadian farms. Mrs. Merle Kirk gave current events. Readings were given by Mrs. Chas. Mitchell, Mrs. Armour Kittmer and Mrs. Alex Whittaker. Safety measures were given by Mrs. McCorquodale. Courtesy remarks were by Mrs. Bryant Sutherland. The meeting closed with The Queen. A sale of plants and bulbs was held following the meeting with Mrs. A. Stewart acting as auctioneer.

July 1968
The June meeting of the Lakeside Women's Institute was held Wednesday, June 5th in the Orange Hall with the president, Mrs. Allin Stewart presiding. The meeting opened with the Ode, followed by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect in unison. The roll call, "Is our school system doing enough for our students?" was answered by 14 members and a lively discussion followed the roll call. The report of the District Annual was prepared by Mrs. Willis Ball and read by Mrs. Allin Stewart. Mrs. Lloyd Kittmer, convener of the meeting on Education, opened the program with the Institute rally song with Mrs. Bryant Sutherland at the piano. Mrs. James Kittmer commented on the motto, "Buried seeds grow, but buried talents don't." Readings on Education were given by Mrs. Clarence Cole and Miss Marion Baker. Current events were prepared by Mrs. Roy Sutherland and read by Mrs. Kittmer. A review of the year's work on the Tweedsmuir History and Scrap Book was given by Mrs. Lawrence Taylor, the curator. Mrs. Leman Harris gave courtesy remarks and the meeting closed with The Queen. The Citizenship and Education Committee served refreshments.

July W. I. Picnic 1968
The Lakeside Institute picnic was held on the L.O.L. grounds with an attendance of over 40. Mrs. Chas. Holden, Mrs. Jas. Morrison and Mrs. Jared Vining were in charge of the games and contests. Gifts for high scores were presented. Mrs. Allin Stewart presided for the business program. The tour of the Institute annual bus trip is to be announced. An expression of appreciation acknowledging greetings was received from Mrs. Ed. Sims, McCormick Rest Home. In 1911 Mrs. Sims (Annie K. Murray) was the first secretary of Lakeside Institute. An expression of appreciation for flowers received from the Lakeside Institute on the occasion of the 50th wedding anniversary was from Mrs. Chas. Langdon. The picnic supper was smorgasbord. Among the guests were Mrs. George Kirk, recently returned from a European trip, and Mrs. Wesley Richardson, St. Marys.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Alderson, Joan and Janice moved to their new home in Thamesford last week.

Miss Marion Baker is visiting in Chomedy, Que. with her niece, Mrs. Dohn Hobbs, Mr. Hobbs and family.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Clarence Cole in the passing of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Pearce, the former Devena Cole, a former resident of Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Seaton and family spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Seaton.

The Baker family picnic was held at Harrington Community Centre on Sunday, July 7th with a large attendance, with guests from Montreal Toronto, Ridgetown and surrounding district.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McCall, Ottawa spent last week with Mrs. McCall's mother, Mrs. Clarence Cole.

A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. Verda Kittmer on Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilbert Clark, Harrington. Friends and relatives attended from Lakeside.

Guests of Jane and Joan Risdon at the United Church manse over the week-end were: Misses Diane McReady and Jeannie Bruce of Windsor, June Jinks, Jo-An Kirkby and Vivian Brown of Chatham and Jean McEachran of Stratford. They attended the matinee at the Shakespearean Festival on Saturday.

The worried patient was visiting his doctor for a checkup. The doctor said, "Have you been smiling at your troubles as I advised you to do?" The patient replied, "Yes, and the boss warned me three times to wipe that silly grin off my face and get to work."

1968