

4-H girls receive honors

Free Press Woodstock Bureau
TAVISTOCK — Four girls received provincial honors Saturday at the 4-H achievement day in Tavistock Hall.

The homemaking clubs of Brooksdale, Braemar, Lakeside, Harrington, Hickson, Princess Elizabeth, Anna P. Lewis and Browns participated.

Nov. 1968
The winners included Elaine McKay, Sharon Morris, Linda Thompson, Embro; and Linda Ferguson, Bright.

County honors went to Julie Smith, Cheryl Gates, Lynda Gates, Betty Langdon, Lakeside; Donna Pye, Karen Thompson, Heather Innes, Embro; Gloria Kittmer, Harrington West; Anna Vermunt, Woodstock; Linda Reibling, Linda Currah, Bright; Norma Weii, Tavistock.

Mrs. Donald Kittmer, Harrington West, received her ten years leaders certificate.

Miss Mary E. Bothwell, home economist, was in charge and Mrs. Gordon Knox, president, Oxford North

Women's Institute presented the awards.

The first meeting of Lakeside 4-H Club was held on Sept. 7th at 10 a.m. in Lakeside Orange Hall. Mrs. James Kew and Mrs. Charles Holden were leaders. Election of officers took place: President, Betty Anne Langdon; vice-president, Vivian Day; secretary, Mary Holden; treasurer, Judy Kew; press reporter, Julie Smith. 24 girls answered the roll call "Tell how old you are and what grade you are in at school." The name of the unit is "The Club Girl Stands on Guard." Navy blue was chosen for the color of our books. In the discussion Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Kew talked about "the club girl as a Canadian citizen". Then the meeting was adjourned.

The second 4-H meeting of the Lakeside Club was held in the Orange Hall, Lakeside on Sept. 14th at 10 a.m. 24 girls answered the roll call, "A book I would like to own." The name of the club was still not decided. In the discussion, the leaders talked about how we spend our time off. Then the meeting was adjourned.

The third 4-H meeting was held on Sept. 21st at the Orange Hall, Lakeside at 10 a.m. The meeting opened with repeating the 4-H pledge. The minutes were read by Mary Holden. The roll call was "A book I would like to own." The lesson topic of Mrs. Kew's address was "Burns and First Aid". The next meeting will be held on Sept. 28th at 10 a.m. in the Lakeside Orange Hall.

4-H Club News

The fifth 4-H meeting of the Lakeside Lifesavers Club was on October 5th in the Orange Hall. In the absence of the president, the vice-president Vivian Day presided. The minutes were read by Mrs. Holden. 18 girls answered the roll call. Mrs. Chas. Holden talked about traffic safety and home safety.

The fourth 4-H meeting of the Lakeside club was held on Sept. 28th at 10 a.m. in the Orange Hall. The meeting opened with the 4-H pledge and the roll call, "Name a person who has made a good contribution to health." The minutes were read by Mary Holden. The topic for lesson discussion was "Safe milk and pasteurization."

1968

Tavistock area Achievement Day presented by 4-H

Free Press Woodstock Bureau

EMBRO — Tavistock Area 4-H Homemaking clubs of Brooksdale, Harrington, Brown's Corners, Lakeside and Braemar along with clubs from Hickson and Tavistock held their regular achievement day at Zorra Highland Park School, Embro on Saturday.

Receiving provincial honors with the completion of 12 projects were Alma Garner, RR 4, Embro; Maxine Innes, RR 1, Embro; Mary MacDonald, RR 2, Tavistock; Sharon Matheson, RR 2, Embro; Carol McKay, RR 2, Tavistock; Mary Sippel, RR 1, New Hamburg and Carolyn Wilhelm, RR 2, Tavistock.

Receiving county honors with the completion of 6 projects were Linda Cucksey, RR 2, Lakeside; Jane Kew, RR 2, Lakeside; Brenda MacKay, RR 5, Embro; Donna Munro, RR 2, Embro; Pat Scott, RR 1, Plattsville; and Bonnie Wilhelm, RR 2, Tavistock.

Afternoon sessions consisted of displays and skits put on by the various clubs which were viewed by 200 interested parents and friends.

Mrs. Gordon Knox, president of North Oxford Women Institute was on hand to present the certificates.

Mrs. Joan Winfield, home economist, Essex, Ontario, commented on exhibits while Mrs. Elsie Felker, home economist, RR 1, York, commented on demonstrations and skits.

May, 1969