

Institute

The Lakeside Women's Institute held their regular meeting on Wednesday, January 9, in the L.O.L. Hall at 1:30.

After the opening exercises, a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. James Kittmer. Reports were given by 4H leaders and quilt committee. Minutes of the last meeting and financial reports were also read.

A short course, "More Hints on Sewing with Knits" is to start on January 14 at the United Church and the leaders are Mrs. Robert Holden, and Mrs. James Zegers. It was decided to send a donation to the War Memorial Hospital for sick children in London. Also to send gifts to the Woodstock Health clinic at Easter.

The program for the afternoon was a euchre party enjoyed by the members and guests. There were twelve tables in play after which a dainty lunch was served by the committee in charge. Prizes were given for euchre scores and birthdays and were won by Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Mrs. Karel Brandenburg, Mrs. John Baker and Mrs. Gordon Gregory, Mrs. Charles Holden, Mrs. Jenny Chandler, Mrs. Jean Young, Mrs. Clarence Cole and Mrs. Ken Cole.

1974

22 Oxford 4-H clubs to be established

WOODSTOCK — Douglas McRae of Ilderton, Oxford's new agriculture extension assistant, announced plans Monday for organization of 22 Oxford 4-H clubs, to begin Saturday.

Organizational meetings will be held for the:

Veterinary club, 1:30 p.m. March 20 at the Zorra Highland Park School, north of Embro.

Engineering conservation club, 8:30 p.m. March 16, Woodstock agriculture office.

Tillsonburg conservation, beef and horse clubs, 8:30 p.m. March 20, Brownsville Hall.

Oxford horse club, 8:30 p.m. March 18, Tollgate School.

North Oxford crops club, 8:30 p.m. March 21, East Zorra Township office, Hickson.

Blenheim crops club, 8:30 p.m. March 21, John Perrin residence, RR 3, Bright.

Burgessville pork club, 8:15 p.m. April 16, place not yet set.

Salford swine club, 8 p.m. April 15, place not yet set.

Calf club organization meetings are: Bennington club, March 20, 1:30 p.m., Highland Park School; Blenheim club, March 19, 1 p.m., Blenheim Township hall, Drumbo; Bonds East and West clubs, March 19, 1 p.m., Woodstock Civic Centre Arena and 2:30 p.m., Woodstock agriculture office; Cody's club, March 20, 1:30 p.m., Highland Park School; East Nissouri club, March 18, 8:30 p.m., Kintore Public School; Ingersoll, March 19, 8 p.m., Ingersoll Arena; Innerkip, March 22, 8:30 p.m. Foresters' Hall, Innerkip; Norwich, March 22, 1:30 p.m., North Norwich Public School, Burgessville; Tavistock, March 21, 8:30 p.m., East Zorra Township office; Tenth Line club (East and West Zorra Township), March 18, 8:30 p.m., Hickson School; Tillsonburg, March 20, 8:30 p.m., Brownsville hall.

Mr. McRae, who will co-ordinate 4-H activities in Oxford, is an Ilderton swine farmer, past president of the Ilderton Junior Farmers, director of the Middlesex Junior Farmers, and a 1973 graduate of Centralia's business management course.

March 12 - 1974

Free Press Woodstock Bureau
 Pointing to the pledge taken by 4-H Club members, is Douglas McRae of Ilderton, a business management graduate of Centralia College of Agricultural Technology. He is the new extension assistant for Oxford County with the ministry of agriculture and food. He will be responsible for co-ordinating 4-H activities.