4-H "Cutie Cutters"

The eighth and final meeting of the Lakeside Cutie Cutters was held on April 14th at the home of Sharon and Pam McGuire. All members answered the roll call telling one new sewing technique I have learned from this project. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Pam McGuire. Laurie King told about the lucky winner of the Easter Egg draw. This ticket was drawn by Mrs. Marg Mills of Lakeside General Store. The lucky winner was Mr. R. Crowder, math teacher at St. Marys District Collegiate and Vocational School. Laurie King was the seller of the winning ticket. Plans for Achievement Day were discussed, and then the girls worked in their blouses and record books. Before hot chocolate and cookies were served by Mrs. McGuire, a fashion show was presented by the members, commentator being Laurie King. This was practice for Achievement Day at Highland Park Public School in May. The girls who completed this unit are: Laurie King, Joan

King, Sharon McGuire, Mary Ann Verwer, Carole Switzer, Nelly Verwer, Pam McGuire and Cindy Verwer.

Barn Destroyed At Lakeside

Oct 6 1971

A barn on property owned by Sjean Segerin, across the lake road south of the Lakeside summer resort pavilion, also owned by Mr. Segerin, was destroyed in a fire of unknown origin last Thursday evening. The barn, empty except for a few old implements and of little value, was not insured, Mr. Segerin said. Members of the St. Marys fire department answered the alarm about 10.15 p.m.

Gratifying Reports

The November meeting of the Lakeside W. I. was held Wednesday, Nov. 3rd with the president Mrs. Jared Vining presiding. The roll call, "A brief history of your home", was answered by 23 members.
