

A Santa Claus Day was an annual affair for some years. A cook camp was built, equipped and kept in repair.

In the fall of 1924, the Institute had a share in establishing the Red Cross Outpost on Lion's Head by its co-operation with the District W.I. and the Red Cross.

It was in 1927 that the W.I. was approached with regards to helping the local Public Library. A Library committee was formed from the Institute and have been active in that connection ever since.

Largest membership recorded thirty-nine.

Largest amount of money raised in one year $547.89.

The first delegates sent to the Guelph Convention were Mrs (Rev.) Gandier and Mrs W.B. Moore in the year 1908. December 9 and 10. Delegates had to leave Lion's Head at 7 a.m. on the morning of the 8th, travelling in a covered sleigh to Wiarton. The driver Mr George Hummel provided foot warmers, making his passengers as comfortable as possible.

From Wiarton to Guelph was by G.T.R. and on arrival the delegates went to a hotel, owned and operated by John Hesson who had lived at Barrow Bay. Mrs Hesson was Miss Mary Myles of Lion's Head.

The first Supt. of W.L. Mr George Putman presided at the meetings which was held in the auditorium at O.A.C. Mr Putman was the link between the Government and the Farmers Institute and the new organization for women. He held this office for years.
