~~Mrs. Moore then told of having attended with the late Mrs. (Rev.) Gandier as delegates a Provincial convention at Guelph on Dec. 9th and 10th, 1908. To attend this meeting, it was necessary to leave Lion's Head at 7 a.m. on the 8th, by stage. The driver, Mr. Geo. Hummel, provided a covered sleigh and foot warmers, making his passengers as comfortable as possible~~

From Wiarton to Guelph was by G.T.R., and on arrival the delegates went to a hotel, owned and operated by John Hesson, who had lived at Barrow Bay. Mrs. Hesson was Miss Mary Myles of Lion's Head.

The first Supt. of W. I., Mr. Geo. Putnam, presided at the meetings, which were held in the auditorium at O. A. C. Mr. Putnam was the link between the Government and the Farmers' Institute and the new organization for women. He held this office for years.

~~Mrs. Moore reported the advantages of the trip, the knowledge to be passed on to the members.~~
