

Madawaska ^{Valley} Women's Institute

July 17, 1972

The July meeting of the Madawaska Valley Women's Institute was held at the home of our president, Mrs. Harvey Schutt.

The meeting opened with the Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect.

Roll call with the way you relax was answered by five members and 3 visitors. Pennies for friendships were collected. Minutes were read and approved.

A suggestion was brought forth that we make our August meeting a joint meeting and that invitations be sent to McArthur's Mills, Denbigh and Combermere.

Our district president, Mrs. Jones was our guest speaker. She spoke on her work in the Institute. "Those who never make mistakes, never do anything." Each of us have talents and she urged us to put them to work in the Institute programmes as the organization helps women to discover their ^{own} talents, and to put them to work. The old garment of our living does not fit anymore and
