

SBV3-10

Mount Hope Women's Institute

By M. Monkman

Mount Hope Women's institute met for a coffee break at Mount Hope United Church on September 3. President Molly Jacques conducted the business, and secretary-treasurer Mildred Misch gave the minutes and treasurer's report. August meeting was held as a weiner roast at Arran Lake. Report of the District Directors' Meeting was given by Molly Jacques. Fall Fair exhibit will be set up by Delorse Smit and Mildred Misch. It was decided to donate $100 to the Mount Hope United Church. The next 4-H club, A Taste of Ontario Fruits and Vegetables, will be sponsored, and leaders will be Linda Middleton and Marlene Monkman. Rally delegates are Joyce Hammell and Mildred Misch. Marlene Monkman will be the delegate to the area convention. Joyce Hammell served a delicious snack.

On September 10 the ladies travelled to Port Elgin to view the excellent doll collection of Grace Reany. Grace gave a history of dolls and told how she makes her very own dolls. Grace, a very talented artist, also repairs dolls. Marie Hammell thanked Grace and the ladies returned to Mount Hope where Mildred Misch and Ruby Wolfe served a nutritious lunch.

The 4-H Silver Spurs Horse Club held their annual Banquet and Awards night October 23 at the Tara-Arran Community Centre. From left to right are Amy Harrison, 9, Greg Stewart, 10, Mary-Jo Tedford, 11, Ben Wilson, 10, and Laura Tedford, 9. Tracey Ward, 12, was also at the banquet but had to leave early. Chris Moulton, 11, was ill Friday and could not attend the Banquet. The club member with the highest aggregate score during the year for all work done was Mary-Jo Tedford. The Most Outstanding Member was Laura Tedford, and the member with the Best Record Book was Mary-Jo Tedford. /87

Three runners at Arran-Tara Elementary School received medallions, October 23, for their performances at the Bruce County Elementary School Cross-Country Championships at Saugeen Bluffs Conservation Area. From left to right, Kevin Tedford, 11, finished second in the junior boys' competition. Marv Jane Middlekoop, 12, finished first in the senior girls' competition, and Paul Galbraith 9, finished third in the tyke boys' race. The school finished 11th overall out of 23 schools at the competition.