

Rotary hockey tournament

Bryan Tedford, 9, was presented with the Fred Smith Memorial Trophy by Roger Kennedy, son-in-law of the late Fred Smith, after the Tara Novices were eliminated from play at the Tara Rotary Club Novice Hockey Tournament, Saturday. Tedford, a goalie, received the trophy as the team's most valuable player.

A Chesley and District High School rink, skipped by Jamie Wark, placed second in the BIA curling playdowns, held in Chesley Tuesday and Wednesday. The rink lost in the final game, 7-5, to Saugeen District Secondary School, of Port Elgin. Curling with Jamie Wark (on the left) were Trevor McLeod, Shanon Alpaugh and Grant Nicholson.

Tara skipped rink takes silver

A rink skipped by Jamie Wark of Tara, representing the Chesley District High School, finished second in the Bruce Interscholastic Association (BIA) Curling playdowns held in Chesley

Tuesday and Wednesday. Wark's rink was defeated 7-5 in the final game by a team from Saugeen District Secondary School in Port Elgin.

Curling on Page 6