Arran-Tara School concert

The Christmas spirit was very evident at Arran-Tara Elementary School on Friday morning, December 16, when a large crowd filled the auditorium to capacity.

The occasion was a Christmas Concert created by students of Kindergarten to Grade 4 and by students of Mrs. Pearson's class. The introduction of the morning performance was presented by the school band, under the direction of Mr. Johnston. The young students gave a wonderful concert of yuletide music. They are to be congratulated on their fine presentation, also their band master.

The auditorium was attractively decorated with Christmas motifs, all created by the students. A gaily decorated Christmas tree, with most of the trimming created by the students. Following is the program. Of course, the young performers stole the show as they waved to their parents, relatives or friends in their child-like delight to present the program:
