

HISTORY OF LOT 11, CONC. 1, ARRAN TOWNSHIP

In 1854 Joseph Briggs of Lot 11, Conc. 2, surrendered his right of possession to Charles Peacock. On May 4, 1855, Charles Peacock assigned the lot to William Grange.

him. Previous to this he had worked in a flour mill.

He first came to Oneida, New York State, and after a short time there came to Bolton, Ontario. After farming there for some

In the spring of the year 1851 William

Mr. William Grange

Mrs. William Grange

Grange (son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grange), a young man of 26 years, left Nunnington, Yorkshire, England, for America. He brought his wife (nee Ann Humpleby, daughter of Robert and Mary Humpleby) and his two young daughters, Margaret and Jane, with time in the fall of 1855 he came by foot to Arran Township, settling on Lot 11, Conc. 1. A log shanty was erected about 30 rods northwest of the present house and there he lived the first winter.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. William Grange, 1874