

1979-1980 At the District Annual in Port Elin on May 8, our Institute got second prize for a poster designed by Mrs. Richard Warnica on the International Year of the Child.

Mrs. Harold McArthur was presented with a corsage when she presided at the Grey-Bruce Area Convention.

Home Economist, Miss Barbara DeVischer spoke on 'Ten Commandments of Smart Grocery Shopping'.

Members of the Williscroft and Arkwright Institutes were entertained, Mrs. Harvey Weppler, District President being guest speaker.

Christmas gifts were sent to the Southampton Nursing Home to mark the Year of the Handicapped.

Mrs. Worlend Hemstock donated a quilt top which was quilted by members as part of the senior quilting project.

Contributed by - Mrs. Roy Palmer 1980

Contributed by- Mrs. Harvey Monkman 1982

1980-1981 W.I. members and guests enjoyed a day at the Bruce Nuclear Power Development and Agri-Park.

Some members ordered Institute signs cost being $5.00 each.

In October a good number of ladies participated in a walking tour of Paisley, recently designated as a Heritage Village.

Mrs. Doug Brown of Chesley spoke of her involvement with a Vietnamese family.

Mrs. Harold McArthur has been elected as president of the Grey-Bruce Area W.I.

Mrs. Don Bristow spoke on Home Care and her work as a Red Cross Homemaker.

Bill Tait of Cooperatives Insurance spoke on what to do if involved in an accident.

.

1981-1982 The W.I. were responsible for placing a first-aid kit and a fire extinguisher in the church.

District President, Mrs. Ford was the guest speaker at the May meeting.

Seven Mount Hope W.I. charter members were honoured at a special meeting in June marking 25 years. There was an anniversary cake and corsages and plaques were presented to the following members: Mildred Misch, Ruby Wolfe, Marg McArthur, Mae Scott, Mary Middleton, Edith Palmer and Beulah Wolfe who was absent. A photograph of all members was taken.