

Opening Ode

A goodly thing it is to meet, in Friendship's circle bright,
Where nothing strains the pleasure sweet, or dims the radiant light.
No unkind word our lips shall pass, no envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal, the good of all mankind.

A Smile comes very easy—you can wrinkle up with cheer
A hundred times before you can squeeze out a soggy tear,
It ripples out, moreover, to the heartstrings that will tug,
And always leaves an echo, that is very like a hug.
So, smile away. Folks understand what by a smile is meant,
It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.
