Oliphant 4-H meet

Oliphant 4-H had their second successful meeting on June 19. First, we went over the ways of making a fire at Ev Arnold's of Oliphant. We also went over ways of making a starter for the barbecue, a tin can stove, pan frames wrapped in foil, different ways of making a barbecue and then we went over some recipes.

Afterwards, we went over to Mr. Clemens pit (also of Oliphant). At the pit, we built a fire, we were glad to say it only took two matches to start the fire. We then made a pineapple up-side-down cake, meal-for-one and S'mores. The S'mores consisted of a roasted marshmallow put in between two pieces of chocolate and graham wafers. We closed with our motto "only you can do it yourself."

on the Chi-Cheemaun was discussed with arrangements later. Mr. W.T. Galloway stated that as one of our members, Mrs. Hyatt, our first president had brought honour to our club by being proclaimed Wiarton's Centennial Queen that this fact, should be recorded and kept for perpetuity. Mrs. Hyatt was then seated when Mrs. Ollie Shaw, a former resident, placed a tiara on her head. Mrs. Hyatt thanked the club members for their kindness and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Greg Iles on the arrival of the Bonnie Baby Boy "Brent". First grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. George Trafelet.

The sale at the W.I. Community Hall on Saturday sponsored by the Young at Heart Club, was a decided success and brought some much needed cash for our coffers. We thank you very much for your help.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Clemens were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bourk and daughter Janice of Ottawa; Mrs. Lorraine Sloan of Albany, New York State and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hardman of Hespeler.
