

V/13

Members of the Warton Legion presented Warton Public School students with the Legion awards on essays and poems submitted on the theme Remembrance Day. Prizes were awarded for the best poems and essays in Grades 4 to 6 and Grades 7 and 8. Several students received honorable mention for their contributions.

Left to right: Betty Gilbert and Jane Wallington, members of the Legion; bottom, Karen Hardman (second place) poem winner, Shirley Weir (first prize essay winner), Robin Henderson, Brenda Barfoot, Natalie Blacklock (third place essay winner), Donna

Sutter, Joelle Lounsbury (second place essay winner), Barney Hopkins and Janice Nixon. Back Row, Ted Ackert, Ron Fletcher, Mike Balzan, Vera Heidolph (third place poem winner), Christine King, Cathy Cook (second place essay winner), Michelle Boyd (first place poem winner), Rachel Hepburn, (first place essay winner), Gudrun Johnson (second place poem winner), Debbie Clemens, Julie Hunter, Cliff Gilbert, chairman of the poem and essay committee and Milt Wronch.

The Warton Propellor Club came through in fine form Friday night defeating the Purple Valley squad 1-0 to win the broomball championship 3 games to 1. Shown above are: (back row left to right); Eugene Rouse (coach), Al Elliott, Vern Arnold, Doug

Pruder, Bill Glasford, John Twigger, Larry Miller, Paul Sutter, Terry Arnold, and George Rouse. Front row left to right are; Keith Twigger, Jim Arnold, John McNabb, Dave Buchanon, Dave McNabb, Dennis Heathers and Ken Marchand. Missing from picture was Ev Arnold.